An environmentally friendly, non-fattening, and stunning way to show your support for breast cancer awareness and research.

Offer these beautiful Pink Tulips direct from Holland to family, friends, and participants in any of the many sponsored events that benefit breast cancer research and support. Collect prepaid orders using an order form, or purchase the ten-bulb sets in bulk to sell direct to the public at any special event.

These Pink Tulips on sturdy 20-inch stems will accent gardens large and small; they are perfect for pots, and can even be forced indoors for some winter cheer. The annual spring-time beauty of the pink tulip makes a very thoughtful gift for survivors or as a memorial.

- Orders need to be received by mid November.
- Allow up to 7 days for shipping.
- Your cost is $7.50 per set and this includes shipping to 48 states.
- Suggested selling price is $12 to $15 per set, it's up to you
- Preferred minimum order is at least ten sets

Bulbs are hardy for most zones and we offer a money-back guarantee or replacement if bulbs fail to thrive and bloom. Bulbs need to be kept cool and planted promptly upon receipt.
